

Expenses

The participation fee is 4,500THB or 140 USD per person to cover costs of accommodation in Bangkok and most meals during the workshop. APNAN provides domestic transportation between Sena Place Hotel in Bangkok and the Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center and return via field sites using EM and also the cost of some meals. The Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center provides accommodation during the workshop. We will not be able to provide any other expenses such as an international airfare, visa fee and accommodation for extended periods.

Accommodation at Sena Place Hotel Bangkok

APNAN will arrange accommodation for all participants accordingly the nomination from our member organizations, based on a twin-sharing basis with another participant based primarily on the country and gender. We will NOT bear expenses of the mini-bar, IDD calls, laundry, Internet access fee and other meals.

Accommodation at Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center

Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center provides accommodation in the dormitory for all participants over the workshop period. We book the room for all participants based on their rooming regulations, which is based primarily on the country, region (2 or 3 countries) and gender. There are no Internet and International call facilities at Saraburi Center.

The rooms of the dormitory have Thai style facilities and air conditioning. The washrooms separated on a gender basis with showers are Thai style. Participants must bring their own toilet kits and towels.

Meals at Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center

Saraburi Kyusei Nature Farming Center serves most of meals for all participants during the workshop. Most meals prepared by the center are based on Thai cuisine for general people, with some vegetarian dishes. The general meals contain rice, chicken, seafood, eggs, vegetables, milk, fruits, etc. without pork and beef. For vegetarians, it is primarily rice, vegetables, fruits, mushroom and etc. Almost all materials for the meals are produced at the farm of the center.

Vegetarians are requested to inform APNAN of their dietary requirements and attempts will be made to accommodate these requests to the best of our ability. It is impossible to prepare strict vegetarian meals alone.

Arrangements

APNAN attempts to arrange all requirements for all participants according to requests at no extra cost. The participants who request special arrangements except those stated above, are required to meet all expenses for these arrangements such as picking up and return to the airport, reconfirmation of the flight, booking for extra nights, etc.

APNAN is sorry that it cannot cater to individual needs. Hence your cooperation is requested.

Thank you.
